

Wollaston Garden Club

Virtual Meeting

September 17, 2020

Outgoing President Emily Lebo called the virtual meeting to order at 6:47 p.m. During this 93rd year of the Club, she thanked the membership for the privilege of letting her serve as our President.

Sixty seven members joined in through Zoom for this virtual installation of the new slate of officers (See attached 2020-22 WGC Board). Kathy Ceurvels and Ann Foresman have accepted the gavel to become co-presidents. They thanked the outgoing Board Members who served on all the committees as well as Emily for guiding us through the Zoom process. They stressed that they would like feedback from members of any suggestions for the Club.

Jan Clifford and Suzanne West were acknowledged for the gorgeous yearbook and Judy Hurstak, Emily Lebo and members of the Hospitality Committee and volunteers for the creative goodie bags. The beautifully decorated cupcake (thanks to Ellen Donnelly) and the adorable foldable flower tote bag were extra special treats delivered to all members to celebrate the installation.

Janet DiPaolo, the incoming Vice President, introduced the speaker, Jana Milbocker.

Jana is an avid garden designer and owner of Enchanted Gardens, a landscape design company, lecturer, and author of two books, The Garden Tourist: 120 Destination Gardens and Nurseries in the Northeast and The Garden Tourist's New England: Guide to 140 Outstanding Gardens and Nurseries. Jana took us on a beautiful tour of various hidden gems throughout New England that members can easily visit on their own.

All other business was suspended until next month.

The meeting adjourned at 8:10 p.m. Our next meeting will be a day webinar on at 11:45 a.m. October 15th, "Designing a Shade Garden" with Holbrook's Cochato Nursery.
